OUR ORGANIZATION & MISSION

At Greensboro Downtown Parks, Inc. (GDPI), we believe parks are more than just green spaces—they're where the community comes together. Our mission is to manage and activate Greensboro's downtown parks, focusing on public engagement, park maintenance, financial sustainability, and keeping these spaces vibrant and full of life.

As a 501(c)(3) nonprofit, we work to create welcoming, dynamic places where people can connect, play, and relax. Through free programs, local partnerships, and creative public spaces, we're making downtown Greensboro a more connected, healthy, and thriving community—one park experience at a time.

OUR PARKS

CAROLYN & MAURICE
LEBAUER PARK

Center City
Park

Center City Park and LeBauer Park are a combined 5-acre urban green space serving as the central gathering place for Greensboro's residents and visitors. LeBauer and Center City Parks welcome over 375,000 visitors each year, hosting 350+ free events and programs in partnership with 100+ local organizations. The Parks have become an essential part of downtown Greensboro—offering a space where people can connect, celebrate, and enjoy the vibrant spirit of the city.

OUR COMMUNITY

Since August 2016, Greensboro's downtown parks have brought over 1.2 million community members together in these beautiful spaces. Drawing people from a range of ages, races, ethnic and cultural backgrounds, socioeconomic standings, abilities and life experiences, the parks have truly become the heart of Greensboro with a pulse on the current happenings of our community.

"This is by far one of Greensboro's best spaces! My family has gained so much from our experiences at the park. From simple play time in the gated playground for my little one to movie night with family and friends, I look forward to finding that easy-access parking and feeling safe and at home in my city!"

OUR REACH

GDPI's has a robust marketing calendar to maximize the reach and impact of our programs and events. With annual foot traffic upwards of 300,000, on-site marketing via printed posters and sponsor tabling at events provides ample opportunity for facetime with the community.
